Bill Offered to Appropriate a Hundred and Fifty Thousand Additional.

BE QUARTER OF A MILLION

A Hundred Thousand is Already Available-An Effort to Secure Early Action.

Colonel George Wayne Anderson, memher of the State Senate, yesterday in troduced in that body a bill proposing an appropriation of $150,000 out of the an appropriation of $150,000 out of the Etate Treasury, in addition to the $100,000 out of the Golden and already appropriated, for the renovation and enlargement of the State Capitol. This makes the total amount available for the rehabilitation of the Capitol and the enlargement thereof by the addition of wings on the east and west sides, the sum of $250,000, in the event the bill becomes a law.

Senator Anderson stated yesterday that he hoped to secure action of some sort the one arready made it was the competing of for plans, examined the competing as and adopted a composite of those tred by Frye & Chesterman, of Lynches, and Noland & Baskervill, of this offered by Frye & Chastantanian of this city.

BIDS TOO HIGH.

Bids were advertised for according to the plans and specifications submitted, but the lowest bid exceeded the amount available for the purpose, and there the matter stands. The plans originally adopted were intended to come within the limit of cost fixed by the appropriation, and did not provide for any material enlargement. The General Assembly declined to appropriate more money for the mere renovation and fire-infoffing of the structure, and there the matter stands. The Capitol Commission contracted with the architects named when their plans were accepted. It would seem that it would be necessary to annul that contract and remunerate the architects for their work before contracting anew for another plan.

The Anderson bill carries an appropriation of $150,000 additional, to be used in connection with the $190,000 already appropriated, the same or so much as may be necessary, to be used for the enlargement, restoration and repair of the present Capitol. The proposed appropriation is to be expended under the supervision of the Governor, and five members of the General Assembly, as provided in the act of April 2, 1902. No part of the $150,000 shall be available until the former appropriation of $100,000 shall be available until the former appropriation of $100,000 shall be available until the former appropriation of $100,000 shall be available until the proposed enlargement is shall be by the addition of wings in general accordance with the plans shown by designs submitted by John Koven Peebles and Noland & Baskervill, and embracing the ornamental plans for the exterior as shown by the designs of the architects monitoned. It is further provided that the proposed enlargement is to be undertaken as soon after the addournment of the next session of the General Assembly as practicable, and completed as soon as may be. The bill provides trat the interior of the present building is to be so arranged and remodelled as to afford suitable and convenient offic pagagage.

The bill went to the Committee on Sinance and Banks, and the patron of the measure will endeavor to have the bill taken up and acted on by the committee without delay.

tary of the Commonwealth, and now a member of the law firm of Lawless & Jeffrics, of Norfolk city is in the city in connection with the coming meeting of the State Central Democratic Committee.

Mr. Lawless came to Richmond to see

State Chairman Ellyson and to urge him to secure as far as practicable a full at-tendance of the members of the State made all the more imperative since the recent publication in Norfolk by one of this leaders of the Dey faction of a statement in the course of which he said: The Treby faction has not a chance in the world, because a majority of the State Committee is on the Dey side. "In my opinion," continued Mr. Lawless, "such partisanry ought not to be countenanced in a case of this importance. A decision of this controversy without regard to its merits, would be destructive of party harmony, while, on the other hand, a decision based on the facts and the evidence will be approved by every good Democrat in and out of Norfolk."

Trehy faction in their petition prayed to be allowed to examine, before the state Committee meets. Upon the production of these sheets much depends, say the petitioners. These and only these will disclose absolutely whether or not an elector's vote was recorded and returned as he called it out in the

Mr. Finch's Candidacy. Mr. Finch's Candidacy.

It appears that Mr. Allen W. Finch's name was put before the board of directors of the pentientiary as a candidate for superintendent of that institution by mistake. These were tacked on to limit the powers conferred by the measure in the event of its passage. Mr. Offic vigorously antagonized the bill while Mr. Walkins defended it. The amend-

WORKING ON CODE BILLS.

Having disposed of the calendar, all the other bills thereon being passed by, the Senate thereupon called the special order, the consideration of the volume of Code bills reported from the Revision Committee. The first of these, Senate bill 472 to amend sections 3498, 850, 3505, 3506 and 3508 of the Code, and to amend section 3515 as amended, 3519 and 3528, as amended, and to repeal section 3524 of the Code, and to repeal section 3524 of the Cod was then taken up. This bill is in rese-tion to the fees of the secretary of the Commonwealth; and clerk of the House of Delegates; notaries and justices of the peace; county clerks and clerks of Appel-late and other courts, in chancery cases and otherwise; of clerks of Courts of Aponstables and coroners, attorneys for th Commonwealth, etc.

Commonwealth, etc.

ATTORNEYS FEES INCREASED.

Mr. Barksdale, of Hallfax, proposed to amend the section, fixing the fees of the Commonwealth attorney of Hallfax so as to increase the State's share of his salary from $350 to $400. The senator secured the floor and made an carnest appeal for the increase. He eulogized his county as the greatest in the State, the surest and strongest in its allegiance to the Democratic party in the State, and in every way one of the greatest in Senate bill 477, to amend and re-enact tections 3618 and 3625 of chapter 177 of the Code, in relation to defense against distress warrant; when tenant unable to live forthcoming bond, etc.

Senator George Wayne Anderson, of Richmond, offered a bill, which was referred to the Committee on Finance and Banks, the purpose of which is to appropriate the sum of $150,000 (one hundred and fifty thousand dollars), in addition to the one hundred thousand already appropriated, for the purpose of renewing and enlarging the State Capitol.

Thereupon the Senate, at 1:45 oclock, adjourned until 11 A. M. to-day, on motion of Mr. Gold.

Mr. Green, of Fauquior, further ex-riaining his position with reference to the bill to increase the salary of Auditor Marye, said he had voted "no" because he did not think it was any time for raising salaries, when the finances of the State were said to be not in a condition which would permit the placing of about 1,000 old soldiers on the perminent pen-sion rolls, according to the bill offered by himself.

The following bills were offered and referred:

son rolls, accounts by himself.

The following bills were offered and referred:

By Mr. Branch: To authorize the town of Smithfield to appropriate money to the While Milliary Company.

By same: To amend the charter of the town of Smithfield.

By same: To authorize the town of Smithfield to have a harbor master.

Mr. Leake called up his bill to require grand fury investigations after all primaries and general elections, and he urged its passage in a brief, but vigorous, affort.

He referred to Mr. Allen of Botstourt, as a political Rip Van Winkle, and said the member was far behind the spirit of the times in favor of pure elections. He contended that it was a well known fact that the Barksdale law had been violated in the State, and he said his bill only sought to enforce the former.

Mr. Lassiter, of Petersburg, replied to Mr. Leake, and declared that the bill was unnecessary, and he took occasion to say that the Barksdale bill was a benrifty. He contended that it made men swear that they had not done things.

Mr. Leake spoke again, and he and Mr. Allen dropped into a discussion of alleged fraud in elections in their respective counties, and Mr. Leake said if there had been fraud in Goethiand, it was because the people of Bottourt had departed from their early training and had put the people of east Virginia under the necessity of protecting themselves from negro domination.

The pending question was ordered, and it recurred on the passage of the bill. Upon roll call, the vote stood: Ayes, 42; noes, 30, and the chair declared, and Mr. Allen raised the point that the required fifty-one affirmative votes, because it made a charge upon the treasury to pay grand jurors.
